Programs for Children

In order to help families attend the Institute, children and youth stay free. If you want your older child to have a room of his or her own, you will be charged the adult room charge. Please call the registrar at 410-358-0050 to make this arrangement.

Applying for a Scholarship

apply early

Because we have limited scholarship funds available, we regret that we cannot grant scholarships to every applicant who needs financial assistance and cannot always grant the amount requested. When applying for a scholarship, please ask for the minimum amount of funds needed so that we can better meet the needs of all who apply.

how to apply

Applicants must complete a scholarship application. Please contact the Registrar at 410-358-0050 for an application, or go to our website at steinerinstitute.org to download a form and fax it to 410-358-0058.

work study program

Participants seeking financial assistance can reduce their fees by helping with meals, children's programs, and in the bookstore and will be making an important contribution to the Institute community. Work hours are scheduled around your course times and include at least one weekend shift. Please be prepared to arrive by 2 pm on Saturday. Questions, contact the registrar at reg@steinerinstitute.org.
